Welcome to Christmas Eve at Trinity. . .

It is a joy to welcome you to this festive service on Christmas Eve.

When I was a boy, on Christmas Eve mom would have made matching outfits for her three sons and her husband. One year we were dressed in plaid pants, white shirts, and red sweaters. We were to light the Christ Candle during the service. The children's choir would sing and we would be wearing our special robes and then sit with our families for the rest of the service. It was an exciting service and then it was home to bed. One year on Christmas morning we were up at 3 a.m., then at 4 a.m. and finally at 4:30 a.m. we were allowed to go downstairs to see the tree and gifts for Christmas. We all took a nap later that day!

Excitement! There is nothing like the glow of a child at Christmas. The expectation, the hope, and wondering what they will find under the tree this year for Christmas.

This evening I will be asking one of the children present to come to the Christmas Tree in the Chancel to find a white envelope and to share with us what it says inside. It is part of the Christmas message this evening.

Christmas Offering – as you leave the sanctuary this evening if you wish to give a gift to the Christ child and for the ministry of God's people in this place, you may place it in the offering plate that is held by one of the deacons. If you are a guest or friend, please know that this is our gift to you and we rejoice that you are with us on this Christmas Eve.

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Lighting of the Advent Wreath and Christ Candle

The Advent wreath is a circle with no beginning and no end.
It is a symbol of God's unending love and faithfulness.

Jesus Christ is the brightest revelation of God's love.
He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

Christ Jesus, who being in very nature God,
did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,
but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.
We have seen his glory,

the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

From the Prophets

Isaiah 9:2, 6-7

<sup>2</sup> The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness,
on them has light shone.
<sup>6</sup> For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given;

and the government shall be upon his shoulder,
and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> Of the increase of his government and of peace
there will be no end,
on the throne of David and over his kingdom,
to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this. <sup>1</sup>

*The Christmas Gospel

St. Luke 2:1-20

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. <sup>2</sup> (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup> And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. <sup>4</sup> And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Beth-lehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) <sup>5</sup> To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. <sup>6</sup> And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. <sup>7</sup> And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup> And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup> And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. <sup>10</sup> And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. <sup>11</sup> For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup> And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. <sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

<sup>14</sup> Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace,

Good will toward men.

<sup>15</sup> And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Beth-lehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. <sup>16</sup> And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. <sup>17</sup> And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. <sup>18</sup> And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup> But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup> And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.<sup>2</sup>
