

The Feast of the Resurrection – Easter Sunday April 17, 2022

Word and Table

Welcome to Trinity Church. . .

Welcome to Easter Sunday at Trinity Church, Berlin!

The Lord is risen!
He is risen indeed!

Rick Warren, the pastor of Saddleback Church and the author of The Purpose Driven Life, together with his wife, Kay, went through a devastating loss when their twenty-seven-year-old son Matthew took his own life after battling depression and mental illness for years.

About a year after this tragedy, Rick said, "I've often been asked, 'How have you made it? How have you kept going in your pain?' And I've often replied, 'The answer is Easter.'

"You see, the death and the burial and the resurrection of Jesus happened over three days. Friday was the day of suffering and pain and agony. Saturday was the day of doubt and confusion and misery. But Easter—that Sunday—was the day of hope and joy and victory.

"And here's the fact of life: you will face these three days over and over and over in your lifetime. And when you do, you'll find yourself asking—as I did—three fundamental questions. Number one, 'What do I do in my days of pain?' Two, 'How do I get through my days of doubt and confusion?' Three, 'How do I get to the days of joy and victory?'

"The answer is Easter. The answer ... is Easter."

We rejoice to have you with us on this Easter Sunday! We invite you to come to the Lord's Table with us to celebrate the defeat of death and sin. We invite you to enter into the joy of this morning as we hear the music of our Handbells, sing with joy, and receive the good news of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ who is risen!

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!

Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the Ruler of kings on earth.

Alleluia, Amen!

Even now as we have received God's greeting, let us greet each other, in Jesus' name.

[to each other] The Lord is risen!

Lighting of the Paschal Candle – The Christ Candle

Sisters and brothers in Christ: On this joyous morning, we celebrate that our Lord Jesus has passed over from death to life. We join with the whole company of God's people in recalling and celebrating his victory over death, and our deliverance from the bondage of sin and darkness to everlasting light.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.<sup>1</sup> In him was life, and the life was the light of men.<sup>5</sup> The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.<sup>2</sup> [St. John 1:1, 4-5]

Eternal Lord of Life, through your Son you have given your people the brightness of your light. Sanctify this new fire, and kindle in our hearts and minds a holy desire to shine forth with the brightness of Christ's rising until we feast at the banquet of Eternal light; through Jesus Christ, the Sun of Righteousness. Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray:

Almighty God, we celebrate today the victory of Jesus Christ over death. As we now hear your Word of grace, inspire us by the power of your Spirit, that we may respond with joy and boldness in declaring our union with Christ, share in the feast of his victory, live in the power of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever. Alleluia! Amen!

From the Epistles

1 Corinthians 15:19-26
Cora Wright, Reader

<sup>19</sup>If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied.

<sup>20</sup>But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup>For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. <sup>24</sup>Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy to be destroyed is death. <sup>6</sup>

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup> So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” <sup>3</sup> So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. <sup>4</sup> Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. <sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, <sup>7</sup> and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; <sup>9</sup> for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went back to their homes.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. <sup>12</sup> And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. <sup>13</sup> They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” <sup>14</sup> Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” <sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher). <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” <sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”—and that he had said these things to her. <sup>7</sup>

Invitation to the Lord's Table

According to Luke, when our risen Lord was at table with his disciples he took bread, and blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him. Friends, this is the joyful feast of the people of God. Come, taste, and see that the Lord is good.<sup>8</sup>

Declaration of Faith and Prayer of Thanksgiving

What do you believe concerning God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

O Lord our God, Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, with joy we give you thanks and praise. By your power you raised Christ Jesus from death to life. Through his victory over the grave we are set free from the fear of death. In his rising to life you promise eternal life to all who believe in him. We praise you that as we break bread in faith, we shall know the risen Christ among us. Therefore, with all Christians we praise your name and sing with joy:

What do you believe concerning Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to hades.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

We praise you, O risen Christ, as the Lord of all creation. We bless you for your sacrifice in dwelling with us on this earth and sustaining even death on a cross. We worship you for your powerful victory over death and for your glorious ascension into heaven. And we thank you for leaving us with a constant reminder of your death and resurrection and means to declare our love for you: the sacrament of our Lord. Amen.

For the Lord Jesus, on the night when he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me. In the same way, he took the cup, after supper, saying, this cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me. For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

People of God, what do you proclaim in this feast?

We proclaim that Christ has died, Christ is risen, and Christ is coming again.

What do you believe concerning God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Holy Spirit of God, descend upon us now, we pray. By these gifts, inspire in us a knowledge of our union with Christ and his church, an assurance of the forgiveness of sins, a vision of our coming resurrection with Christ, and the comfort of knowing we will live and reign forever with our Lord. Amen.
