Vol. 28, No.5

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons.

As we welcome the autumn months,
may the earlier setting of the sun
remind us to take time to rest.

May the brilliant colors of the leaves remind us of the wonder of your creation.

May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is you who give us the breath of life.

May the harvest from the fields remind us of the abundance we have been given and bounty we are to share with others.

May the dying of summer's spirit remind us of your great promise that death is temporary, and life is eternal.

We praise you for your goodness forever and ever.

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS NOW PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS

I have been pondering for a couple of days and came across two opinion columns in The Somerset Daily America written by Robert Lind. The first was titled, "How does God do his work in this world?" and the other was "Ten Reasons Why People Don't Wash".

The first: "There is a common thread that runs through the stories in the Bible to which we should pay more attention. As we look at these stories, we discover God works through common people to accomplish his work". He goes on to mention Abraham, Moses, Saul of Tarsus who became Paul. From the beginning of the to the end we find the same theme. God doing his works here through ordinary men and women.

The second: The Rev. Sydney Laing of Dublin, Ireland, was tired of hearing the same old excuses we give for not going to church. Tongue in cheek, he wrote this piece for his parish paper.

Ten Reasons Why People Don't Wash

1. I was made to wash as a child.
2. People who wash are hypocrites. They reckon they are cleaner than other people.
3. There are so many different kinds of soap. I could never decide which one was right.
4. I used to wash, but it got boring, so I stopped.
5. I still wash, but only on special occasions like Christmas and Easter.
6. None of my friends wash.
7. I'm still young. When I'm older and have got a bit dirtier I might start washing.
8. I really don't have time to wash.
9. The bathroom is never warm or comfortable enough.
10. People who make soap are only after your money.

When I discovered Lind's articles, especially, "Ten Reasons Why People Don't Wash", I smiled because I have used most of these excuses more than once.

I keep asking myself the question, "Why do I go to church?" and I always want to say it is always because I want to go and to get a better understanding about what God wants me to do, be or become.

Only you can answer that question for you.

Now to change the subject to the items of the day, we have speakers/pastors for Rally Sunday, September 11 and all of the month of October. We have big plans for Sunday School on that day. Check Sue Coughenour's item in the newsletter.

The Profile Committee would like to know your preference, to have a gathering, to respond in writing, or no preference.

There is still lots of work to do, so keep our Church in your prayers.

Tom Calvert, President
Berlin Trinity United Church of Christ Consistory

Sue Coughenour's Sunday School

Parenting is hard work! Plain and simple. How did you develop your concept of discipline? What are your strengths as a parent? Your weaknesses? Beginning September 11th, Sue Coughenour's Sunday school class will be delving into Dr. Kevin Leman's "Making Children Mind Without Losing Yours", a six-week study that helps parents to better grasp disciplining their children in a positive way. These lessons will focus on:

- Developing the courage to do what is best for your kids
- Understanding kids and why they do what they do
- Maintaining authority without being an authoritarian
- How to gain your teenager's love and respect and keep it forever
- Helping kids feel good about themselves for all the right reasons
- Turning everyday hassles into everyday successes

We are opening this class to persons of all ages with the hope that we can entice some grandparents to join us to share their experiences as parents. Their insight into parenting is an essential part of making this class a success! So, adults of all ages are encouraged to join us in the parsonage basement during the Sunday school hour. Hope to see you there!

Sunday School Teacher Needed:

We are currently looking for a Sunday School teacher for grades 4-6. Thank you, Jean Hart, for stepping up to teach 7-12 grades! If you are interested in serving, please contact Sheron Engleka, Sue Coughenour, or Tom Calvert.

Rally Sunday

Mark your calendars! Rally Sunday is September 11th and hopefully this will be a day to get families to fully engage in church and Sunday school once more. Plans are in the works to make this a special day so watch the bulletin for more details.

The word Rally is defined as a renewal of energy in joint action, or to draw together for a common purpose. That is what we will be doing on Sunday, September 11th during the Sunday School hour starting at 10:10 pm. Come see what is new in our Sunday school, including an opening for all to come together to share a time of singing, praise, fun and reflection. New classes will be offered for all ages; with two adult classes being offered. There will be coffee, juice, and donuts and a little longer opening this Sunday as we kick off the new Sunday school year. Please come join us!

Profile Committee

We invite all of you to be part of a self-study and community learning process that will identify our church's imagination for the future and corresponding pastoral needs. We will develop a church profile for potential candidates by gathering for an open forum on Sunday, September 11th at 6:00 pm, as well as provide an opportunity for members to answer profile questions in writing. In preparing our local church profile, what matters most is clear communication and a cohesive process to encourage maximum participation by the whole congregation.

Below are the questions that will be posed during our open forum:

1. Where would you like to see our church going?
2. Describe the ministry goals you envision our next minister co-collaborating with the congregation to achieve.
3. How could we be more involved in the community?

4. Describe how your vision of the minister we are now seeking will assist the congregation in making an impact beyond its walls.
5. What do you value about living in this area?
6. Who is God calling us to become as a congregation?
7. Describe how God is calling us to reach out to address the emerging challenges and opportunities of our community and congregation.
8. Describe several strengths or positive qualities of our congregation.
9. Describe what worship is like when our congregation gathers. What are some words used to describe good preaching?
10. Describe the educational program/faith formation vision of the church. How do people continue to form their faith over a lifetime?
11. List three core competencies that you imagine could be foundational in your next minister's relationship with the church. (Examples: caring, sensitive, sociable, organized, detail-oriented, etc.)

Thank You

Thank you from the Roos and Zimmerman families:

The family of Kimberly Kay Roos would like to thank you for the cards, care, and support during Kimberly's illness. Sadly, after a courageous two-year battle she has joined our Lord in peace.

Thank you from the Luteri family:

Our lives have obviously been turned upside down. Only our Lord knows what lies ahead. One day at a time. What we do know is that without the visits, cards, calls, and acts of kindness; before, during and after, we would not have endured. Terry loved you all and had a special place in his heart for you as do each one of our family. Our church family will be our strength as we move forward. Peace be with you and God bless you all.

Debbie Luteri & Family

Thank You from Lew & Barbara Berkley

We want to thank everyone for their care and thoughtfulness for our 60th wedding anniversary with the many cards that we received. It has been a great and wonderful journey. We so appreciate our church family. May God Bless one and all.

~Lew & Barbara~
